

Ragam: Mayamalavagowla

Talam: Adi

Composer :Tyagaraja

Pallavi: Meru Samana Dheera Varada
Raghuveera Juthaamu Rara Maha (meru-)
Anupallavi : Saarasaara Oyaarapu Natalanu
Neeradha Kaanthini Nitivini Maha (meru-samana)
Charanam : Alakala Muddhunu Thilakapu Theerunu
Thalluku Jekkulache Dhanaru Nemmomuna
Galamuna Shobillu Kanaka Bhushanamula
Dalitha Durmaanava Tyaagarajaarchita Maha (meru-samana)

Pallavi:

Raghuveera ...Dheera .. O Brave Maha Meru Samana .. literally equal to big mountain
Varada ... O Bestower of boons Rara Please come Juthaamu ... let me behold You.

(Raghuvira! Firm and inviolable like the great Mountain ! Bestower of boons ! Please come!
Let me behold You.)

Anupallavi :

Saarasaara ... You are 'the Truth of truth.' The vital force is truth,and It is the Truth of that."
Oyyaarapu Natalanu .. with impressive walking
Neeradha Kaanthini ...on your emerald hue
Nitivini .. let us feast our eyes ...

(Saarasaara, let us feast our eyes on your emerald hue and impressive walking.)

Charanam :

Muddhunu Alakala ..the charm of Your dress"s curls ,
Thilakapu Theerunu ... beauty of thilaka, Thalluku chekkulache with shiny cheeks
Dhanaru Nemmomuna ... glowing Your sweet face
Galamuna Shobillu in Your neck radiant ,
Kanaka Bhushanamula the golden ornaments ,
Durmaanava Dalitha O Destroyer of wicked people
Tyaagarajaarchita worshipped by this tyAgarAja..worshipped by this tyAgarAja

(The lovely frills of YOUR dress , sporting THE ever beautiful Kasturi Tilaka on your forehead, your blooming cheeks,THE grace of YOUR neck with the dangling go;d necklace,
OHH! The Destroyer of the wicked, one who is worshipped by Thyagaraja, Give us the privilage
,the blessing,the rare and good fortune of watching this grand spectacle OF SEEING YOU!)